Procedure of Peer-Review of Articles for Publication in the IJSRR-IJR

Two-Point-Blank Peer-Reviewed Process (through the following 6-Steps) are being followed for Selection & Publication of Articles in the IJSRR-IJR

Merit of the Article is the Main Criteria for Selection & Publication of Article

➤ Step -1: Receiving of Papers/ Articles:

All types of Articles / Papers/ Study Reports are being collected and checked by the Editor-in-Chief.

➤ Step -2: Meeting of the Editorial Board:

Editor-in-Chief discuss with the members of the Editorial Board (online meeting) about the received articles; and classified those Articles according to different disciplines. Sectional Co-Editors are assigned to review primarily and to select the papers, which can be sent to the Reviewers for their observations. Sectional Co-Editors submit a panel of 3-4 Reviewers of their respective discipline.

➤ Step -3: Primary Observations about the Article:

- (i) Each and every Article is being scrutinised critically, mainly on the technical aspects, and the 'Primary Observations about the Article' are being made on the Articles, which can be published after revisions. The 'Primary Observations are being sent to the respective Author(s) to revise the Article by complying with the 'Suggestions' made in their article(s); and asked them to send back the Revised Article within 3-5 days.
- (ii) After receiving the Revised Article, it is being checked by the Editorial Team. If the suggestions are properly complied with, then the Article is being sent to Reviewers.

➤ Step -4: Sending of Articles to the Reviewers and after receiving the Reviewers' Report:

4.1 Sending of Articles to the Reviewers:

As per recommendations of the Sectional Co-Editors, Chief Editor (his office) send request letters to two/three Reviewers along a soft copy of the primarily selected articles and an evolution sheet/proforma for his/her review reports.

4.2 Review Report:

After receiving the Reports from the Reviewers, Sectional Co-Editors compile the Reports and select the Papers/ Articles which are to be published- (i) Without any editing; (ii) Minor Editing needing; (iii) Major Editing needed and send back to the Author(s); (iv) Not Publishable.

➤ Step -5: Intimation to Authors:

Chief Editor send intimation to the Authors along with consolidated Review Report, as per recommendation of the Sectional Co-Editors, and asked Author(s) to revise/ re-edit/ make necessary corrections of their Article(s). Authors are asked to make Plagiarism Checking and submit the overall report along with the Final Edited Article.

➤ Step -6: Final Selection of the Articles for Publication:

- i) Plagiarism Checking has to be made by the Authors concerned all publishable Articles/ Papers.
- ii) Final Selection of the Articles is being made by the Chief Editor on behalf of the Editorial Board, and their decision is final.
