

Maa Rama Devi

[Born: 3rd December 1899 * Demise: 22nd July 1985]

Birthplace of Maa Rama Devi at Satyabhamapur, Cuttack

Rama Devi while cutting vegetables for cooking. She was a great cook

Sitting front row L to R: Ramadevi, Krushna (daughter of Nabakrushna- Malati), Gopabandhu, Binayak (son of Nabakrushna-Malati),

Second row Standing L to R: Malati Devi, Uttara (daughter of Nabakrushna-Malati), Man Mohan (son of Gopabandhu-Rama Devi), Sumitra wife of Man Mohan), Nabakrushna.

Elders (L to R): Sumitra, Gopabandhu, Ramadevi, Man Mohan. Children: Jnanadeva on the lap. Kabeer and Madhabee (twins of Man Mohan-Sumitra).

Hand Spun Thread used by Rama Devi for spinning

Labana Satyagraha 'Smruti Stambha'

Meeting for Labana Satyagraha at Inchudi started from here by Rama Devi, Malati Devi and her women team in 1930

Entudisala of Manmohan & Annapurna Chowdhury

Old Book-shelf at Maa Rama Devi's place

Bhoodan campaign started in Odisha on 7 January, 1952. On that day, Gopabandhu Choudhury and his wife Rama Devi along with several others started their historic pad yatra from Bari-Ramachandrapur for acquiring land for the landless.

Bhoodan movement at Bari

At the conference of Kasturba Trust at Satyabhamapur on 17.02.83